DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-13 in Paper No. 5 is acknowledged.

Specification

2. The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. Claim 7 recites the limitation "the etch stop layer" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Art Unit: 2812

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-5 and 7-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Jang et al. (US 5,840,624, dated 11/24/1998).

a. Jang shows the method as claimed in figures 5-8 and corresponding text, with dielectric layers 8, 19 and 23 and etch stop layer 20.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

b. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

c. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.

Art Unit: 2812

3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103© and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

d. Claims 6 and 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jang et al. (US 5,840,624, dated 11/24/98) in view of Andideh et al. (US 6,362,091, dated 3/26/02, filed 3/14/00).

Jang shows the method substantially as claimed and as described in the preceding paragraphs.

Jang lacks anticipation only in not teaching that there are at least 6 alternating silicon dioxide layers.

Andideh teaches multiple layers of this quantity for an improved contact formation with lower dielectric constant and greater etch control.

Art Unit: 2812

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have used the multiple dielectric layers taught in the method of Andideh to form the structure shown in Jang with the motivation that Andideh's structure improves etch control and contact resistance and reliability.

Prior Art Of Record

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See the PTO Form 892 for similar structures of multiple silicon dioxide formation.
